Find your direction with The Library

Compass is your guide to discovering events and programming for children, families, teens, and adults.

HOW TO REGISTER

Most events with The Library require registration, which is noted in their descriptions. Visit dcls.org/events, or call 717-234-4961 and choose option 6 to register. Once you're registered, you'll receive a confirmation email.

For most recurring programs, register once and you're registered for all events following.

For virtual programs, please be sure to include your email address for a library employee to contact you with more information and any links you need to join. If you registered for a recurring virtual program, you'll be contacted weekly with a link to the program.

For all programs, please be sure to include your phone number and/or email address when registering so that The Library can contact you if a program is canceled or changed.

We respect your privacy

The Library sometimes photographs, records, or takes screenshots at events and programs for publicity purposes. If you'd prefer that you or your children not appear in any photos, videos, or screenshots taken by The Library, please let the leader know prior to the event.

Let us know what you think or suggest a program

Email eventscoordinator@dcls.org or contact us through our website or on social media.

Warm Hands. Warm Hearts.

Donate hats, gloves, scarves, and blankets at any of The Library's locations starting in October. This project helps our community stay warm during the cold winter months. Donations can be new or homemade. Blue baskets will be set up in the libraries for people to drop off donations or take what they need.

About the Author: Lynnor Bontigao hails from the Philippines and is the author-illustrator of the picture book SARI SARI SUMMERS (Candlewick). She has also illustrated THE WORLD'S BEST CLASS PLANT (Putnam/PRH) by Liz Garton Scanlon & Audrey Vernick, YOU ARE REVOLUTIONARY (Beaming Books) by Cindy Wang Brandt, and JACK & AGYU (Sawaga River Press) by Justine Villanueva. Lynnor received the 2020 SCBWI Tomie dePaola Professional Development Award, the 2020 Kweli/SCBWI Emerging Voice Award, and the 2021 Kweli Sing the Truth! Mentorship.

Lynnor is also the illustrator of 3 upcoming titles in Spring 2024, AT THE END OF THE DAY by Lisl Detlefsen, KAILANI'S GIFT by Dorina Gilmore-Young, and SEASHELL KEY Series by Lourdes Heuer.

She loves stories where family relationships, culture, and food are intertwined. Lynnor Bontigao lives in Roselle Park, NJ with her family and 1 tiny dog. To learn more about her, please visit lynnorbontigao.com

Joan Y. Leopold Children's Book Week Celebration

This Children's Book Week Celebration is made possible by the Joan Y. Leopold Endowment Fund. Joan Y. Leopold, a life long resident of Dauphin County, served as a board member of the Dauphin County Library System for more than 20 years. A tireless advocate for both child and adult literacy, her belief that reading opens a world of education and imagination lives on in her family, students and all those she touched through her efforts.

Winter Reading Challenge

Registration begins on December 1.

December 1, 2023 to February 29, 2024

Cozy up on the couch and read along with The Library this winter! Earn points by logging your reading, writing reviews, creating picture reviews, and doing activities.

FOR ALL AGES!

Preschoolers

Earn 100 points to complete the program!

For the 5 and under crowd, we are challenging our youngest library members to earn 100 points this winter. We recommend preschoolers log the number of books they read. Sign up for both the Winter Reading Challenge and 1000 Books Before Kindergarten, and make your reading count double.

School Aged Kids

Earn 200 points to complete the program!

Kids ages 5 to 12, your goal this winter is to earn 200 points by logging your time spent reading, completing activities, and writing reviews. Keep an eye out each week for new activity challenges to earn your points faster.

Teens

Earn 200 points to complete the program!

Teenagers ages 12 to 18, your goal this winter is to earn 200 points by logging your time spent reading, completing activities, and writing reviews. Keep an eye out each week for new activity challenges to earn your points faster.

Adults

Earn 30 points to complete the program!

Adults ages 18+, your goal is to earn 30 points. We recommend adults log their reading by books. One book and one review per month will earn you all the points you need to complete the challenge.

Everyone

Register and log however works for you:

1. Go to dcls.org/wrc and either sign back into your Beanstack account or create one for the first time.
2. Download the Beanstack Tracker app (available for iOS and Android; just search for "Beanstack Tracker") and either sign back into your Beanstack account or create one for the first time.
3. Stop by any library location to register!

1000 Books Before Kindergarten

For ages 0–5 years

The idea is simple: build a daily reading habit with your child, log your reading, and earn prizes! Register your infant, toddler, or preschooler any time before they start kindergarten and start reading. Log the books you read. What counts towards your reading? EVERYTHING! You can read the same book 1000 times, or you can read 1000 different books. You can hear books at The Library's storytimes and they count. An older sibling or grandparent can read, and it still counts!

Read three books a day and you'll be done in less than a year! Earn a prize book at 100 books, 500 books, and 1000 books, and sign our wall of readers at your library every time you hit a 100-book milestone.

Register today on Beanstack at dcls.beanstack.org. Pick up a paper log at any library, or log your reading online with the Beanstack Tracker app.

Native American Heritage Month Celebrations

Native American Heritage in Storytimes

November is Native American Heritage Month. During the last week of November, our storytimes will reflect on Native American history with traditional stories and exploration into some of the vast cultures that make up our country's origins.

Lessons from the Animal People: Native Stories with Dovie Thomason

For families with children of all ages

MOM: Thursday, November 9 at 10:30 a.m.

KL: Thursday, November 9 at 4:00 p.m.

Lessons from the Animal People / Native Voices: First told to her by her Apache grandmother, and then by a lifetime of learning with storytellers from many Native American traditions from the Eastern Woodlands to the Plains, these traditional stories about animals, families and hero/tricksters provide a clearer understanding of the values and cultures of the many different Native Nations of North America.

These stories often explain the “what” and “why” questions about the Earth and her animal children—why bear hibernates, why rabbit has no tail, why owl only flies at night and so many more. Whether a talkative Turtle, overbearing Buffalo, unkind Fox, or restless Chipmunk, the characters face the importance of choices as listeners of all ages are spellbound by the animated style and voices.

About 40 minutes. Registration required and limited.

Check out the Native American Heritage Month items in The Library's collection!

Or search the terms: Indians of North America, Native Americans, American Indians, Latinx.

National Family History Month Celebrations

Facebook Book and Film Discussion Groups

Science Fiction Book Club

Whether you enjoy the hard science fiction of Larry Niven or Alistair Reynolds or the softer science fiction of Ray Bradbury or Ursula K. Le Guin, we have the perfect discussions for you at the Science Fiction Book Club (SFBC). The SFBC is a group on Facebook that has over 11,000 members all around the world that discuss science fiction literature. Every month both a classic and a modern sci-fi novel are chosen by members as Group Reads. And, we also discuss a short fiction story each week that is always available to read online for free. In addition to that, people talk about whatever books they are reading, ask for recommendations, share recent finds, and many other discussions.

Join the group on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/sciencefictionbookclub>

Star Trek Rewatch

Our continuing mission to watch classic and new Star Trek and discuss it with fellow fans, to boldly go where no one has gone before.... Star Trek Rewatch is a group on Facebook where members watch and discuss an episode of a classic Star Trek series every other day. Currently, we are going through Star Trek: The Next Generation. Also, on Fridays, we discuss an episode of one of the newer Star Trek series. Currently, we are discussing Season 4 of Lower Decks.

The bus will depart from the museum at 5:00 p.m. for its return to the East Shore Area Library at approximately 7:30 p.m.

Join The Library on a trip to Washington, D.C! We will take a bus trip to the National Museum of African American History and Culture (NMAAHC), where we'll delve into the rich and diverse tapestry of African American history, culture, and contributions to our nation. To quote Lonnie G. Bunch III, the museum's founding director, "there are few things as powerful and as important as a people, as a nation that is steeped in its history."

The bus will have an ADA wheelchair lift available. The museum is accessible via escalators, elevators, and ramps. Detailed accessibility information can be found on the museum's website at nmaahc.si.edu/visit/accessibility-options.

Registration is required. $50 per person, though additional donations to support the Hari Jones: Hidden Histories Program Series and Collection are welcome.

The fee covers the cost of transportation. Reservations for free museum admission will be handled by The Library with entry tickets provided the day of the event. The Library will provide snacks and beverages on the bus, but attendees are responsible for meals.

LIMELIGHT ON LOCAL ARTISTS

October – December Exhibition

Meet & Greet Artist Reception

ESA: Saturday, October 7, 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

In partnership with the Lower Paxton Township Arts Council, we invite you to The Library to meet Steve Barber, the local artist whose work will be on display and in the limelight this fall!

Light refreshments will be served. Artifacts from the Lower Paxton Historical Commission will also be on display at The Library.

About Steve

Steve Barber, Harrisburg artist, remembers that as children, he and his sister loved to draw and paint. Through his school years, Steve says that he has ran into some pretty important people and instructors who took a liking to his work, especially his teacher Charles Acri. At the time of his high school graduation, not sure of what path to pursue, Barber enrolled in the Art Institute of Philadelphia to study visual communication. He received his associate degree in Visual Communications from the institute.

After leaving the Art Institute and not being able to find a job in his field, he decided to continue his painting. Ms. Sophia, an instructor at the Art Institute of Philadelphia told him that “there is a gift in his painting, and that he should never give it up”.

In 1988 Barber joined The Art Association of Harrisburg (AAH) and is still an active member. Steve says that the greatest influence on his work was his instructor the late expressionist Charles “Li” Hidley of Harrisburg.

Currently, Steve serves as the Art Director at Nyeusi Gallery and the Chief Operating Officer of Ethel Lee Vintage and Art (ELVA). His work has been featured on the cover of Burg Magazine, Highmark Blue Shield, Widner University, Penn National Insurance Company, Penn State University Harrisburg Campus, Boyer and Ritter Company, Belco Credit Union, Allision Hill Policing Center, and Schein/Ernst/Mishrai. His most coveted honor was being featured in the International Contemporary Artist vol X catalog. Steve has also received the Gold Key Award for his work entitled The Wardrobe. In addition, he received the Mid Susquehanna Carroll Award in a major competition.

Steve says, “His goal and inspiration is to paint with his design sense, imagination, spiritual mind-set, and letting his skill set dictate what the actual creation is.”

Steve Barber’s work can be found at the Nyeusi Gallery, ethelleevintage.com, barberartstudio.com, bostixs@instagram and he can be reached at barberartstudio@yahoo.com.

Artwork on display is available for purchase. Sales will occur between the seller and buyer. Ask library staff for more details.
